WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2023 | 6:30 P.M.

ROCKVILLE MEMORIAL LIBRARY
21 Maryland Avenue, Second Floor
Human Rightst Commission Conference Room
Rockville, Maryland 20850

This program is free of charge and open to the public

Scheduled to provide the training:

DENISE W. NAZAIRE: Ms. Nazaire is the lead conciliation specialist for the U.S. Department of Justice-Community Relations Service (CRS) in Washington, D.C. Utilizing facilitated dialogues, mediation, training, consultation and various conflict resolution skills, Ms. Nazaire has worked with CRS to improve communities' abilities to problem solve and build capacity to prevent and respond to conflict, tension and hate crimes. She previously was a management analyst within the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Police Department and served as a deputy project director within the DOJ, administering criminal juvenile justice research, violence prevention, police community relations, project management and training and technical assistance.

THOMAS M. COYLE: Mr. Coyle is the supervisor of the Public Corruption and Civil Rights Unit-Squad C-10 for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) office in Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Coyle has 26 years of experience in Federal and local law enforcement. During his 13 years with the FBI Public Corruption and Civil Rights Unit-Squad C-10, the operation had several successful prosecutions of civil rights violations of Federal "Hate Crimes" laws. Thomas served as the supervisor of the Public Corruption and Civil Rights Unit during the past five years.
